IMPORTANT MEETING OF HOPGROWERS

Plan of Organization Declared to be a Perfect Success

An important meeting of the newly organized Hopgrowers' Union was held in Santa Rosa on last Saturday for the purpose of further discussing the objects of which the organization was formed.

The Press-Democrat reports the meeting as follows: Some important speeches were delivered and some letters of equal importance read. At the conclusion of the meeting the sentiment was expressed as this: As far as the plan of the organization is concerned it is a success. If its objects fail the responsibility of failure will rest upon the individual grower who does not sign the by-laws and remains "an outside man."

Max Wolf, of the old hop dealing firm of Phillip Wolf & Co., was present and was called upon for his views on how an organization of growers could be successful. Wolf declared that it was a mistaken idea that the dealers were against the organization. A legitimate dealer," he said, "wants the grower to receive good prices and the way to obtain good prices is for the grower to organize and govern the production for the benefit of the trade."

Wolf then stated that he had reliable information from England to the effect that the hop acreage there would be reduced this season 5,000 acres, and this means 35.000 bales. He said further that if the growers of the Pacific Coast would pledge themselves to reduce the crop of 1908 ten per cent, it would increase the price of the 1907 hops remaining unsold.

Facts and figures were quoted to show that the low prices of hops that had prevailed had meant a loss to the growers of Sonoma county, and incidently to the business channels of the county, of a quarter of a million dollars. Had hops brought, say fifteen cents per pound, this loss would have been averted and an additional million dollars would have been put in circulation in the different communities of the county.

W. E. Lovdal reported that seventy-five per cent of the growers of the Sacramento valley had identified themselves with the Hopgrowers' Union, and he believed that the percentage would be raised to eighty or ninety per cent. Really speaking he only knew of five hundred acres of hops that were at present aloof from the Union, and a portion of them would be signed up, he said.

NEW CREAMERY ABOUT FINISHED

Meeting of Farmers Called for Saturday Morning in Sanford's Hall

The creamery building is now completed and the De Laval Dairy Supply Company now has an engineer and his assistants installing the machinery for butter making. A meeting is called for next Saturday at 10 o'clock at Sanford' hall at which the stock holders and all farmers who can supply milk are urged to be present.

The farmers are especially urged to be there as the butter maker and another cremery expert will be present to give any suggestions or advice that may be desired. The directors ask each farmer to let them know how many cows they milk as they want to start the machinery by the first of March. Walk down and see the fine machinery being installed at the plant on State street.

Superior Court Decision

Last Tuesday Judge White rendered a decision in the case of Broaddus vs. James. The case is relative to land near Willits. Mrs. Broaddus deeded a tract of land to her daughter Mrs. James, and suit was brought in the superior court by O. J. Broaddus to set the deed aside, alleging that the deed was made under influence by the interested parties. Judge White's decision held the deed valid.

TOWN BOARD IN SESSION

City Fathers Spring a Surprise and Reinstate De Merritt

The town board of trustees meet in special session last Wednesday evening to consider the passage of new ordinances, and other matters. Ordinance No. 155, licensing boxing and sparing exhibitions and ordinance No. 156, relative to the use of sewers and manner of connecting same, received the official sanction of the board, and were ordered published.

Trustee Lucas stated that gambling was being carried on in this city, and that it was well known to the peace officers, and that no steps had been taken to stop the same. He made a motion that the office of street commissioner, carring a salary of $80 a month, be declared vacant, and that Warren DeMerritt, city marshal, be appointed to fill the same. This motion was put to a vote and was carried Trustees Lucas, Weldon and Marks voting in the affirmative.

About a year ago the board created the office of Executive Officer and appointed B. H. Miller to the office fixing the salary at $80 a month, and also cutting down the salary of marshal to $10 per month. Marshal DeMerritt then brought suit of mandamus for one month's salary to determine the legality of the board's act. The decision of the superior court was in favor of the plaintiff. The case is now on appeal before the supreme court, The board of trustees then changed the position of "executive officer" to that of "street commissioner", and Officer Miller continued to act in that capacity.

A lively war of words among the members of the board was the result of this motion, but it was carried and now "Growley" will be reinstated and draw a salary of $90 per month.

The city election will be held in April, and before this matter came up it promised to be a bitter fight among the rival factions, now it will be doubly so and some interesting political and factional developments will be on the tapis.

COUNTY PRISONERS AT WORK

Ten of the County Boarders Paying For Their Keeping

Under Sheriff Smith and Jailor Gibson have now thirteen prisoners in the county jail. These officials claim that they are not in the least superstitious, but they would prefere to have an even number of boarders under their care. Ten of the prisoners are being used now in the chain gang working on the streets and roads and they are doing good work, thereby at least earning their board.

A recent arrival at the jail demurred to going out to work for the commonwealth, but under the persuaive method of Under Sheriff Smith, who threatened the bread and water diet in case of a refusal, the prisoner is now busily engaged in doing what is demanded of him, and from the view of an outsider it looks as though it was the first honest toil the prisoner had ever done. Frank White has charge of the chain gang, and that is an assurance that every member thereof will have to work.

Champion Swimmer Here

A. R. C. Cavill, of Sydney, Australia, was in Ukiah last Sunday on his way to Laytonville for an outing. Mr. Cavill, is the greatest swimmer in the world and holds all records. He kindly offered to give an exhibition of his skill in the river next Sunday afternoon, should the weather prove favorable, and should a collection be taken up he will donate the same to charity.

The bill of expenses filed by Deputies Lynch and Donohoe for the transportation, etc., of V. Riccomini to Folsom prison last week, where he had been sentenced for seventeen years for robbery, was $65.55. This includes all the necessary expenses of the two deputies and the prisoner.

BANKRUPTCY TO BE SETTLED

Trustee Johnson of Bankrupt Firm of Evans & Orr Files Report

The creditors of, and all others interested in the matter of the bankruptcy of Evans & Orr, will be pleased to learn that the estate will soon be settled.

Proceedings in bankruptcy were filed on September 22, 1903. Al Johnson was appointed trustee of estate one month later and has been trustee since that time.

The trustee, for the benefit of the creditors, operated a saw mill at Low Gap and a planing mill in this city. Dr. Geo. McCowen held mortgages on these two plants, and recently bought the properties in for the value of the mortgages.

Trustee Johnson has been very energetic in his endeavor to place the estate on a paying basis devoting all his time and some private funds to carrying out his trusteeship faithfully.

This week A. J. Thatcher, attorney for the trustee filed a report to T. L. Carothers, referee in bankruptcy, showing the present conditions of the estate under the direction of Trustee Johnson. Following is the report:

To the Hon. T. L. Carothers, Referee in Bankruptcy:

The undersigned trustee of the above entitled estate respectfully presents the following as a report of the present condition of said estate.

This is not intended to be an account of his administration as such trustee. An account is now in course of preparation and when completed will consist of several hundred type written pages, and will show in detail the receipts and expenditures of money and property during his administration.

The present assests of the estate are:

Lots of "split stuff" -	$ 50 00
Promissory note of Dan Campbell - -	48 39
Cash on hand -	265 87
Judgment against W. F. Jennings for $1197 47, less credit of $262 27 -	935 20
Claim against J. M. Harcourt pending in Superior Court	150 82
Book accounts due estate per ledger - - -	4239 91
Total -	$5688 19

The estate is indebted as follows:

A. P. Brunner - -	$ 43 92
Frasier Lumber Company	12 00
John Shoemaker - -	33 95
Irvine & Muir Company -	131 25
Charlton & Son - -	33 55
J. H. Barker Company -	10 93
Lucas Bros. - -	204 96
Geo. McCowen - -	74 06
Total -	$937 62

As to the items last above named, the trustee and Geo McCowen had a difference of opinion. The trustee claims that Geo. McCowen should be charged with the difference between his bid on the planing mill property and the amount of his mortgage thereon amounting to about $150.00. If the trustee is correct in his contention Geo. McCowen will be in debt to the estate.

In addition to the debts above set forth, the trustee has advanced out of his private funds cash to pay laborers and lumber haulers, logged for three seasons, and paid other bills.

He figures said amount advanced to be $10,440.01 and has received thereon the sum of $6206.72, leaving a balance due said trustee of $4,233.39. These amounts will be given in detail in the forth coming account. This does not include any commissions or charge for traveling expenses. Including the last named sum the debts of the estate are $5,171.01.

Death of Former Resident

Dr. H. G. Wyckoff, a former physician of this city, died in Palo Alto on January 28th of paralysis. He lived here several years and was well and favorably known. He was a veteran of the civil war. His widow and three children survive him.

MASONS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

Abell Lodge, No. 146, Holds Public Installation Saturday Night

A public installation of the officers of Abell Lodge No. 146, F. & A. M. for the ensuing year, was held in the Masonic hall in this city last Saturday evening. Past Master Dr. E. G. Case was the installing officer, assisted by Past Master H. B. Smith, as master of ceremonies.

A large number of members with their wives and daughters and visiting brothers filled the hall, and the impressive ceremonies attending the installation were thoroughly enjoyed by all. The work of the installing officials was executed in a most thorough manner and received the highest praise of the Masonic body.

Immediately following the installing ceremonies a banquet was served. The menu had been carefully prepared by a fellow craftsman, J. H. Carothers, and to which the fortunate dinners did ample justice.

Following are the officers installed: Charles M. Mannon, W. M.; Louis P. Anker, S. W.; B. L. Cleland, J. W; James R. Mathews, Treasurer; G. P. Anderson, Secretary; Florine E. Anker, S. W.; M. Bromley, J. D.; Dr. E. G. Case, Marshal; J. H. Carothers, S. S.; Frank F. Barker, J. S.; W. H. Chessall, Tyler.

HIGHWAYMAN KNOWN

Officers on the Track of the Mendocino Stage Robber

The masked highwayman who held up the Potter valley stage near what is called Woolercock, on the grade near Wattenberger's resort, recently, is still at large. Constable Orr has furnished the Mendocino county authorities with information that may lead to Sheriff Donohoe landing the road agent behind the bars within a short time, says the Cloverdale Reveille. The actions of a peddler well known to a number of people in this section have been such as to lead to the belief that he is the hold-up man. The description of the highwayman fits the peddler to a nicety and it is thought he will soon be picked up and brought to Ukiah and given an opportunity to explain certain actions.

TAXES NOW DELINQUENT

Monday Was The Last Day for Payment On First Installment

Last Monday was the last day for the payment of the first installment of county and state taxes. Tax Collector Van Dyke received $23,981.03 on that day and the office force were kept very busy handling coin and making out receipts. Those who neglected to pay this installment have a penalty of 15 per cent added to the amount due.

It is estimated that the delinquent roll this year will be about $10,000 less than it was in 1906. This is a good showing considering the financial depression through which the country has just passed. Money has been very hard to get especially with the ranchers and farmers. The sixty days extension allowed by the special session of the legislature proved a boon to a great many people. The total amount collected this year is about $170,000 and that received on the first installment was $150,325.88.

A Cut in Wages

The Union Lumber Company, of Fort Bragg, have made a reduction of 25 per cent in the wages of the men employed in the mill. Only one side of the mill is running at present with a limited crew. The mill will saw enough logs to furnish fuel to keep the electric light plant going.

Candy Store Attached

The candy store located on South State street and conducted by Dan Smirles was attached by the sheriff on Monday last for a claim held by Peter Sasines, of San Francisco, for $58.50. The proprietor of the candy factory has made no effort to liquidate the claim and the store is still in the hands of the sheriff.

LETTER FROM SAN FRANCISCO

Interesting Budget of News Of Ex-Mendocinoites in The Metropolis

San Francisco, Jan. 28—No doubt one of the greatest events in San Francisco's musical and dramatic evens this winter was the advent of Kubelik, the violinist. Vast throngs heard the great violinist, both the rich and the poor. The latter every year lean more strongly toward Elbert Hubbard's philosophy, "if I had but two loaves of bread, I should sell one and buy white hyacinths to feed my soul."

I went to a plain German plumber awhile ago on Saturday night for some information; he was out, I asked the good wife if I might return the following day after church? She informed me that she never allowed him to permit his business to interfer with his family's time on Sunday; that they went to church, then for drives, walks and concerts. It was a mild, but a much appreciated rebuke. I envied her, her stamina and good sense. Elbert Hubbard's philosophy in the instance quoted is ideal, occassionally he has some frightfully bilious spells in the "Philistine", yet there is usually some terse and pithy truth therein.

The passing of Mervyn Duncan is the smothering of a light from one of the best and most respected of Mendocino's families. Certainly there was nothing about happy light hearted handsome, Mervyn Duncan to associate with death. Maybe the sweet oblivion of it, is as precious to him now, as it would be to the ill, the down-trodden, the oppressed. Certianly the heart ache that is his parents', and that of the bereaved, can never be his, and certainly the kindness that is always the portion Sam Duncan gives his family, and the sweet unselfish devotion of Mrs. Sam Duncan to her beloved can leave them only comforting memories. I have never known more unselfish parents than these; a large host of friends must attest this, and the family certainy has the unlimited sympathy of a host of Auld Lang Syne.

Few realize what magnitude there is to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. A clerk is asked what an operator does, and visa versa. I have never seen an operating room until this year, and those interested in the great scientific mechanisms of the age should not miss seeing one, particularly the long distance room, the latter is rather beyond ones descriptive powers, rather too great in the magnitude of its working and devices to be appreciated only by sight. Mr. Sporvert, the high chief of the main office, one of the largest in San Francisco, took me over a limited part of the wonders of their office at Keaeny and Bush. I found electrical developements in telephone wonders beyond the comprehension of a novice, without the guidance of a splendid electrician like Mr. Sporvert.

James Halliday, of Point Arena, has charge of the San Francisco Contract Department of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. He is one of a number of Mendocino county boys and men, that I am going to remind you about, as being well to remember with all else that is good of Medocino county.

Anderson Thomas is with one of the best known firms in town, and prominent with their names is his on Market street at a very central point, where "he who runs" may read ditto of Marshall Nuckolls; he is another fast rising devotee to Blackstone in a city so rapidly growing out of the ashes.

Mr. McNab has recovered from his recent severe accident and returned to his office where he is to be found a leader as for many years past.

Mrs. McNulty Ginoy Grant, married a southerner, a very fine man,

NEWSY ITEMS FROM WILLITS

Interesting Budget of News From Our Northern Correspondent

Willits, January 28.—Last week one of the Union Lumber Company's wood choppers strayed from camp 8 and laid out several nights. The following day two others went out to search and they also got lost. All of the men in the neighborhood then organized rescue parties. Gene Anderson found all three of the lost men by tracking them through the brush. They were in a deep canyon near Two Chop ridge, about eight miles west of Willits.

Attempt to Blow Up Tobacco Factory

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 23.—An attempt was made today to dynamite and burn the Hayes-Sory Rugis tobacco factory at Clarksville, Tenn.

The guards killed two negroes and wounded another.

An investigation showed that the door of the factory had been saturated with coal oil and four sticks of dynamite placed against it.

When the bodies of the two negroes were searched, sticks of dynamite were found on their persons in sufficient quantities to wreck the building.

The third negro escaped.

Humane Way of Killing Hogs.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—How to kill hogs at the stock yards in an artistically humane manner has been investigated by the Illinois branch of the Consumers' League. During a meeting at Hull House a committee recommended that no hog or other animal be dressed, after the juglar vein had been severed, until the animal is known to be dead.

A delegation will wait upon the Chicago packers and request that the recommendation of the league be followed.

POINT ARENA AND VICINITY

A Resume of South Coast News Taken From the "Record"

The Point Arena union high school opened next Monday after the winter vacation. All the student should be on hand.

The L. E. White Company are fencing in their holdings on the Garcia, and are driving out all stock not belonging to them.

Our Sherlock's, who are hunting for the Ukiah stage bobber, are having a strenuous time capturing each other and shooting at everything in sight.

W. R. Gaine has been laid up this week. He was attacked by a severe cold on Friday and next day it was feared that he had been stricken with paralysis as he was unable to use his left arm. He gained strength, however, but is still a sick man.

Constable Slack met with an accident Friday He was returning from Iversen where he posted notices of attachment on some posts, and coming down the Frost hill the front axle of the buggy broke, causing a wheel to come off. Mr. Slack succeeded in quieting the horses and escaped with only an injured shoulder.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia M. Hall, mother of J. W. Hall, of Bridgeport, took place from the family home on Saturday, January 18th, leaving the house soon after 10 o'clock. Owing to the condition of the weather and of the roads some were unable to attend at the house and cemetery, but Alder creek was fordable and for a few hours the storm had ceased and the interment took place at the Evergreen cemetery, where Mrs. Hall was laid to rest beside her husband, A. W. Hall, who died in 1897.

The first accident this winter in Alder creek occurred Monday, when A. Caselli lost two horses. A young man was bringing his milk to the creamery, and the creek being too high to cross at the lower ford he went up to Wm. Antrim's old place and attempted to cross there. When amid stream the boy says one of the horses balked and the team was carried against a drift pile. The boy jumped onto a log, but it turned with him and he fortunately caught the branch of a tree and saved himself. The horses were in the water about an hour and a half and then went under and were drowned before help came. Mr. Caselli has rented Walter Ward's place, and the loss to him is a severe one. It will be fortunate if there are not more such accidents in Alder creek before the winter is over. There being no bridge the people are forced to take desperate chances to reach the creamery or come to town if they have to.

MAGIC IN MOROCCO.

Charms and Spells That Are Used by Moorish Women.

Mrs. Mansel-Pleydell writes of the curious charms used by the women of Morocco: "Moorish women resort much to charms to gain lovers or to keep their affections when gained. There is one charm which is seldom known to fail. It consists of shredding a small piece of an undergarment which the man has worn and, after certain incantations have been said over it, of rolling the particles into the shape of a small ball. This is embedded in a large ball of clay and, after being slightly damped, it is kept in a pot over the embers of live charcoal.

"I have been assured that as soon as the heat penetrates the clay the man, whoever he may be, will lay aside whatever work he is doing at the time and fly to the arms of the woman who invokes the charm. As long as the ball is kept warm so long will the heat of love burn in the heart of the lover for that woman.

"Another spell much resorted to is cast by cutting off the tips of a donkey's ears, cooking them and mixing them in the man's food. He then becomes as foolish as a donkey, with love for the charmer who has provided his unsavory repast." — Chicago News.

A WHALE'S MOUTH.

The Grove of Twelve Foot Quills That Fills the Cavern.

The rules for eating accredited to Gladstone and Fletcher, which required thirty-two, more or less, chews to each mouthful, were never meant for the true whale. It has no teeth, and it swallows its food whole, catching it in the baleen, or strips of "whalebone," which depend from the sides of its mouth. If a whale saw the whalebones that womankind are accustomed to using in their waists he would never recognize them as part of his alimentary system, they are so small. In the form in which they would be familiar to him they would be ten or twelve feet long and look like giant brushes, with a handle ten inches wide at the end.

One might wonder how any animal could close its mouth with a grove of twelve foot quills sticking out of the roof. When the mouth closes the slabs of baleen lie flat in grooves. When the mouth opens the slabs spring forward, completely filling the cavern. One whale may have as many as 700 in its mouth. Sometimes the weight of this giant mouth fringe is a ton, and the contents of the mouth of one whale taken in Bering sea on Oct. 20, 1883, weighed 3,100 pounds, or a ton and a half.—New York Tribune.

Ordinance No. 156

An ordinance fixing and regulatng the use of sewers by private individuals and the manner of connectingwith the same in the Town of Ukiah City, creating the office of Sanitary Inspector and prescribing his duties and fixing his compensation.

Section 1. There shall be a sewer committee for the Town of Ukiah City, consisting of three members, appointed from the Board of Trustees by the President at the first regular meeting of said board after the biennial election of officers for the said town.

Section 1½. A new municipal office is hereby created, the incumbent of which shall be known as "Sanitary Inspector," and who shall hold office during the pleasure of said Board of Trustees. His duties shall be such as are hereinafter prescribed; and until otherwise ordered the salary of such officer shall be ten dollars per month, payable as other salaries are paid; but the Board of Trustees may from time to time change such salary by order duly made and entered in its minutes.

Section 2. No person, firm, partnership or corporation shall construct or maintain or suffer to be or remain upon his or their premises or upon premises under his or their control any privy, privy-vault, cess-pool, sink or drain without connecting the same with the public street sewer in the manner prescribed by this ordinance if there be a sewer in the street on which such premises may be situate with which the same may be connected. Every person, firm, partnership or corporation owning or having under his or their control any property, dwelling or building from which sewerage is discharged into or upon any public highway, stream, water course, or public place or from which sewerage is discharged into any drain, cess-pool, private sewer or other receptacle whatever shall make connection with the public sewer in the manner prescribed by this ordinance upon any street on which his or their property may have a frontage. Any person failing to comply with the provisions of this section for more than ninety days after the construction and final acceptance of a public street sewer in a street adjacent to his premises is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 3. No person shall uncover the public sewer for any purpoes or make connection therewith or uncover for public inspection or for connection any branches thereof or any manhole or flushtank, unless by consent and under the supervision of the City Engineer or his duly authorized agent, and no person shall do or cause to be done any injury of any kind in any manner to any of the appliances or parts of the public sewer.

Section 4. No person shall make or cause to be made any connection for the removal of sewerage from any premises with the storm water drains of said town or with any stream or water course within the limits of the said town.

Section 5. No pipe drain from any hotel, restaurant, dwelling house, electric plant, steam engine, creamery, laundry, or soap factory, shall be permitted to connect with a public sewer unless the same be carefully trapped with a "grease trap" before crossing the inner line of the sidewalk, so as to prevent all grease from flowing into such sewer pipe. There shall be a trap and fresh air inlet between such grease trap and the building, and no pipe drain shall be permitted to connect from any livery stable or any wash rack with any sewer unless the same be trapped with a "sand trap" so as to prevent sand or dirt from flowing from such stable or wash rack into said sewer main.

Section 6. Every pipe connecting with the sewer, from a point five feet outside the foundation walls of the building, must be either of heavy cast iron or of salt glazed vitrified earthenware; must be sound and impervious in all its parts and free from all imperfections; must be solidly laid on a true grade, and as nearly as possible, in a straight line; all changes in its direction must be made with a properly curved pipe; must be jointed in the best manner and covered for a depth of at least one foot with well rammed, fine earth, entirely free from stones and rubbish. Within forty-eight hours after the back filling of the trench is completed the paving or ballast must be replaced, and the street left in good condition and to the satisfaction of the City Engineer, or his duly authorized agent.

Section 7. No drain connected with the public sewer shall be laid with a less inclination or grade than 1 in 100 without the permission of the City Enigneer or his duly authorized agent.

Section 8. All drains connected with the public sewer shall be four inches in its interior diameter and no person or corporation shall lay any pipe or conduit for any purpose whatever, in any street within five feet on either side of the public sewer in said street without the permission of the committee on sewers.

Section 9. No more than one building shall be connected with the public sewer through one drain pipe without permission of the City Enigneer or his duly authorized agent.

Section 10. In opening trenches on any public street or way the paving or ballast must be removed with care and placed apart from the remainder of the earth excavated so that the same can be replaced after the trench has been refilled; the sides of the trench must be sheeted or braced when directed and in the manner directed by the City Engineer or his duly authorized agent. The earth thrown from the trench must be placed so as not to obstruct the gutter and so as to cause the least obstruction to public travel. Gas and water pipes must be protected from injury,, and the trench inclosed and lighted at night, and every precaution taken to prevent injury to person or property during the progress of the work.

Section 11. Any settlement over a drain on any street or public way occurring within sixty days after the work has been completed shall be repaired at the expense of the owner of the property from which such drain has been laid and to the satisfaction of the Street Committee.

Section 12. Notice must be left at the office of the City Engineer twenty-four hours prior to the beginning of any work upon a drain, and no material shall be used or work covered until inspected and approved by the Sanitary Inspector or his duly authorized agent.

Section 13. Every connection of a water closet, sink, basin, or other vessel connected with a soil pipe or drain must be separated from it by a trap offering an obstacle to the passage of air equal to not less than one inch depth of water.

Section 14. All details of the work of connecting with the public sewers, of the materials to be used and the quality of the same, of plumbing work for water closets, sinks, etc., shall be in accordance with this ordinance. All materials used must be of a kind and quality to be approved by the said Sanitary Inspector.

Section 15. No hopper closet shall be set up which has a trap of less than one and three quarters inches seal; provided, that no pan closet shall be used in any house connected with said sewer.

Section 16. No connection may be made at any part of the house drainage system with roof gutters or any other channel for the conveyance of rain water save that plumbing fixtures may be supplied from tanks constructed to store rain water for such purpose, the overflow of such tank not being connected with the drainage system.

Section 17. All soil and waste pipes shall be as direct as possible and all parts of the work shall be so arranged that they may be at all times readily examined and repaired.

Section 18. Every person, firm or corporation who shall engage in the business of making sewer connections in the said town shall file a bond, to be approved by the Board of Trustees, in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned to indemnify and save harmless the said Town of Ukiah City from all damages arising from any connections, made by them, with the public sewers.

Section 19. No person shall allow any surface water or rain water from the ground or roofs of houses or buildings to enter any pipe or drain, or any vessel or slop stone connected with any pipe or drain connected with the public sewers, or to admit any drainage water from any cellar into such pipe or drain without obtaining permission from the Committee on Sewers.

Section 20. No person shall throw or deposit, or cause to be thrown or deposited in any vessel or receptacle connected with a public sewer, any garbage, vegetable parings, ashes, cinders, rags, or any other thing or matter whatsoever, except feces, urine, the necessary water closet paper, and liquid house slops; or to allow any house drain to be connected with any privy vault or cess-pool, or underground drain, or with any other channel conveying water or filth, excepting the soil pipes and plumbing work of the house or building.

Section 21. The ground shall be excavated in open trenches to the required depth and width. The trench shall be six inches wider on each side than the exterior diameter of the pipe. Excavations shall begin at a point to be designated by the Sanitary Inspector or by his duly authorized agent.

Section 22. The mechanic doing the work shall pump out or otherwise remove any water or sewage which may accumulate in the trench and shall construct dams or do other work necessary for keeping the trench clear of water and sewage during the progress of the work.

Section 23. The sides of the trench shall be supported with suitable planking and bracing, wherever necessary, to prevent the caving of the trench, and if the natural bottom of the trench is not a suitable one on which to lay the pipe, the excavation shall be increased to such depth as may be necessary, and brought up to the required grade with clean sand or other material, as the City Engineer or his duly authorized agent may direct.

Section 24. During suspension of the work at night or other times a stopper must be placed in the end of the pipe last laid, to prevent earth and other substances from entering or washing into the pipe.

Sec. 25. Each joint of pipe must be laid on a firm bed and in conformity with the grade and alignment, given by measuring down from a tightly stretched line running parallel with the trench and grade, said line to be supported over the trench by bars placed across the trench at points to be designated by the Sanitary Inspector or his duly authorized agent.

Section 26. The cement mortar must be composed of the best quailty of fresh Portland Cement, mixed in the proportions of one part cement to two parts clean sharp sand, the cement and sand must be mixed dry, the water afterwards added and the mortar made fresh for the work in hand. No mortar shall be used that has been standing over two hours.

Section 27. In cementing, the space between the spigot ends of the pipes and sockets, must be uniformly and completely filled with cement mortar and pressed into place with the fingers, the filling of the socket must extend one inch beyond it, and be rounded out to the outside of it all around the pipe.

Section 28. The work must be water tight at all points and any leaks or other defects discovered at any time, must be immediately repaired, and any pipe which has been disturbed from any cause must be taken up, the joints cleaned and relaid. No pipe shall be laid in water, nor shall water be allowed in or around it, until the cement has set perfectly.

Section 29. The interior of the drain shall be carefully freed of all cement, dirt and other superfluous material of every description, as the work proceeds for which purpose a disc filling the entire bore of the pipe, and attached to a rod sufficiently long to pass two joints from the end of the pipe last laid, shall be continuously worked through.

Section 30. After the pipe has been properly laid and jointed, and the mortar has set, the trench shall be carefully filled with loose earth free from clods and stones, care being taken not to disturbe the pipe. After the first layer of one foot has been carefully rammed or soaked with water, the remainder of the trench shall be filled and rammed as the engineer or his duly agent may direct. Walking on the pipe will not be permitted.

Section 31. From a point at least three feet outside the foundation walls of any building, no material may be used, within or under the building, for soil, waste or vent pipes, other than galvanized wrought-iron, or castiron pipes, with securely leaded or screw joints, or lead pipes with wiped joints. Cement or putty joints, tin or sheetiron pipes, whether galvanized or not, shall not be used.

Section 32. If the said Sanitary Inspector or his agent deems it necessary he may require that before the fixtures are placed in connection with the plumbing of any house or building, and before the soilpipe is connected with the drain, that the outlet of the soilpipe and all openings into it shall be hermetically sealed, and the pipe filled with water to its top and every joint carefully examined for leaks. Any leak that may be found shall then be securely closed before the connections are made with the housedrain; except that in case of inspection of plumbing already existing, the peppermint, ether or smoke test may be used.

Section 33. In making all lead joints on castiron pipes a gasket of oakum must be used and the lead melted and poured in and thoroughly caulked with tools made for the purpose.

Section 34. All soilpipes leading from closets must be four inches in diameter, and all pipes leading from bathtubs, sinks, washbasins or other vessels shall not be less than one and one-quarter inches in their interior diameters.

Section 36. All traps in any building shall be vented with castiron or galvanized wroughtiron pipes, of not less than the size of the waste pipe connected with said trap; except where the closet is situated on the ground floor a two inch vent can be used, otherwise said ventpipe shall be full bore to a point above the roof, and in cases where the end of said ventpipe is within less than twelve feet of any window which may be above the same, then the said ventpipe shall extend at least two feet above such window.

Section 37. Where two or more fixtures are connected with the same wastpipe, the lower trap on said wastepipe shall be vented to the roof, or the same may join the vent of the upper fixture at a point not less than one foot above the highest point of said upper fixture.

Section 38. No horizontal venting will be allowed. All changes in the direction of any ventpipe must be made at an angle of not less than 45 degrees, nor shall any trap be vented at a greater distance than two feet from the hip of the same. In making all joints between iron and lead pipes a brass soldering nipple or brass ferule must be used.

Section 39. No slop-hopper shall be set up in any dwelling, and any slop-hopper connected with the house drainage shall be provided with a suitable strainer and shall be securely trapped unless said slop-hopper is connected with the housedrain at a point not more than thirty (30) inches, above the greasetrap, said thirty inches to be measured along the line of said housedrain from the inlet of the greasetrap to the base of the slop-hopper.

Section 40. All fixtures must be separateely and effectively trapped and the traps must be placed as near the fixture as practicable. No bell-traps will be allowed in any case. All greasetraps and slop-hoppers shall be so placed that rain water and surface water cannot flow into them. Sandtraps shall be so constructed that they can be readily opened and cleaned, and all freshair inlets shall be brought to the top of the ground and shall be protected by a suitable box with perforated cover.

Section 41. The pipes leading from sinks, bathtubs, basins and washtrays may discharge into a slop-hopper placed outside of the building, and in that case the traps on said pipes need not be vented if the horizontal distance from the outlet of the fixture to the slop-hopper does not exceed five (5) feet and the vertical distance does not exceed four (4) feet.

Section 42. It shall be the duty of the Sanitary Inspector and his duly authorized agents, to enforce full compliance with this ordinance in relation to the sewer connections, the construction of housedrains and plumbing work and the exclusion of all improper substances from the drains and sewers. He shall also keep a record of all work supervised by him, when and by whom the same was made and a record of his approval or disapproval of the same and at each meeting of the Board of Trustees he shall make a report showing what, if anything has been done in regard to sewers during the month past.

Section 43. The said Committee on Sewers shall have power to stop and prevent from discharging into the public sewers any private drain through which substances are discharged which are liable to injure the sewers or to obstruct the flow of the sewerage.

Section 44. Any work not herein specified, but which may be fairly implied shall be properly executed, and all to be completed in a thorough and workmanlike manner.

Section 45. All work must be done subject to the approval of the Sanitary Inspector or his duly authorized agent.

Section 46. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than forty-five dollars; and if default be made in the payment of such fine imposed, or any part thereof, then he may be imprisoned one day for each dollar of such fine remaining unpaid, and each day's continuance of such violation shall be deemed a separate offense.

Section 47. Ordinance No. 83 and all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed; provided, however, and except that the right to prosecute for any violation of Ordinance No. 83 is hereby saved to the Town of Ukiah City.

Section 48. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication.

In Starting a Business Career Look Beyond Your Time in School Into The Great Future

Careful consideration of the great future will certainly bring you to the San Francisco Business College to take your course.

This school not only gives you the most thorough and practical education possible, but it is in close touch with the great business opportunities offered in the rapidly rebuilding city. We could place five times as many men as we have with good firms, where fair wages are paid at the beginning, and every opportunity offered to advance.

Scores of Mendocino county young people have taken courses in our school and we cheerfully refer you to any of them.

We have standing calls from three of San Francisco's great business enterprises for competent young men who are capable of being advanced to high positions.

We can furnish good board and comfortable room for $22.50 per month.

Write for full particulars.

Rock Candy.

"Originally what is now known as rock candy," explained a confectioner to a reporter, "was called in the trade Gibraltar rock. Originally, also, it was the purest kind of candy, for it was crystallized sugar pure and simple. Ordinarily it is purer now than many other candies. Hawthorne, in 'The House of the Seven Gables,' describing a small store, says, 'For instance, there was a glass pickle jar filled with fragments of Gibraltar rock—not, indeed, splinters of the veritable fortress, but bits of delectable candy.' Other writers of even earlier date than that speak of Gibraltar rock. It appears, however, that the Gibraltar was finally dropped, and it became known as rock candy. I have a price list issued in 1848 to the candy trade in which Gibraltar rock is the name given, though after that it is quoted as rock candy. Throughout England it is known as Gibraltar almost exclusively outside of the large cities. In the latter, as here, the Gibraltar is dropped, and it is called rock candy."

A Dismal Failure.

A young jobbing firm in New York overbought for the fall trade. Their heaviest mistake had been in a line of overcoats, which, it looked, they would have to carry over a season. Efforts to get cash for the stock were fruitless except at ruinous rates. At last the firm went to an old timer in the trade for advice.

"Well," said the man of experience, "you've got a pretty good list of customers. Just divide the coats up into lots of thirteen each. Send a batch apiece to some of your sharpest customers, but make out the bills for twelve. They'll be so tickled to get one coat for nothing that they'll take 'em all."

The scheme had been tried before the men met again. The old timer waited for his praise.

"Well, didn't they keep the coats?" he asked.

"Yes," returned the jobber sadly. "One each—the one that wasn't billed."
--New York Times.

The Hanging Judge.

When Lord Norbury, "the hanging judge," as he was called in Ireland, was sentencing a man to death for stealing a watch, he said:

"My good fellow, you made a grasp at time and caught eternity."

Nothing seemed to please Lord Norbury more than the continual uproar in court, created by his puns.

"What is your occupation, my honest man?" he asked a witness.

"Please, your lordship, I keep a racket court."

"So do I," said the judge.

When Lord Norbury was being buried, the grave was so deep that the ropes by which the undertaker was letting down the coffin didn't reach to the bottom. The coffin was left hanging midway while somebody went for new ropes.

"Aye," cried one in the crowd, "give him rope enough; don't stint him. He was the boy that never grudged rope to a poor body."

Economy.

Economy is the science of buying a two dollar hat for $3.75 when a good one may be had for $4. It is a harmless and fascinating pursuit for those who can afford it, but a poor man has no business to fritter away his time and substance on such extravagances. Women are particularly addicted to it and often become so skillful that they are able to get through January without encroaching on their April allowance. Men who have such wives are naturally very proud of them and are willing to redouble their efforts, if necessary, in order to provide them with the means to develop the habit.—Life.

Discovering Writers.

The rejection of a manuscript often left a pang, but the acceptable manuscript, especially from an unknown hand, brought a glow of joy which richly compensated me for all I suffered from the others. To feel the touch never felt before, to be the first to find the planet unimagined in the illimitable heaven of art, to be in at the dawn of a new talent, with the light that seems to mantle the written page, who would not be an editor for such a privilege? I do not know how it is with other editors who are also authors, but I can truly say for myself that nothing of my own which I thought fresh and true ever gave me more pleasure than that I got from the like qualities in the work of some young writer revealing his power.—W. D. Howells in Atlantic.

He Knew His Sister.

Since the engagement of his pretty sister her small brother had been puzzling his head to understand what it meant.

"Why," explained his mother, "Mr. Sharp has asked sister to marry him. She loves him and he'll take care of her."

"Buy her things?" asked the boy.

"Yes."

"Dresses and clothes and ice cream and everything?" he persisted.

"Yes," was the answer.

The boy thought it all over for a moment and then he said:

"Well, she must get lots of courage. I can't buy."—Ladies' Home Journal.

To the Hon. J. Q. White, Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Mendocino, State of California.

John Taylor, Public Administrator of the County of Mendocino, State of California, respectfully makes this return of all estates of decedents which have come into his hands for the term commencing July 1, 1907, and ending Dec. 31, 1907, in pursuance of the provisions of Section 1736 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Economical.

"I believe I have found the prize woman economist," said an east side baker the other day. "She has just moved into my neighborhood, and I understand the family is by no means poor. The wife came into my place Monday and bought a dozen small cakes. I supposed they were for tea that evening. Imagine my astonishment when she came back Friday evening carrying a small paper sack, from the depths of which she carefully drew forth three of the identical cakes I had sold her four days before. Nodding her head toward them, as she set them down on the counter before me, she said sweetly, 'Won't you please exchange these for some fresh ones?' at the same time indicating a batch that I had brought from the oven not half an hour before."

"Well, what did you do?" asked the baker's sympathetic friend.

"Do? I gave her three of the fresh ones. I think I must have been mesmerized. Next thing I know she will be bringing back the bread crusts to have new loaves put inside them."—Columbus Dispatch.

SCHOOL SHIP BLOWS UP.

Eight Are Killed When Boilers on Antiquated Craft Explode.

Kiel, Nov. 7.—The boilers of the German school ship Blucher exploded yesterday, while the vessel was near Murwick. It is reported that eight men were killed and twenty injured.

The Blucher is a German torpedo school ship. She was built at Kiel in 1877, and usually has on board about 360 officers and men. Her armament consists of several old 5.9 inch Krupp guns and some smaller quick-firing guns.

UKIAH, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY, 31 1908.

Gillett, Safe And Sane

LAST Saturday the Republican State machine, otherwise known as the Southern Pacific political machine, met in San Francisco, and gave the following certificate of safety and sanity to Governor Gillett, says the Star:

"That the Republican State Central Committee commend and endorse the administration of Governor James N. Gillett, and express the hope and belief that the remainder of his term will, as in the past, subserve the best interests of the State."

That certificate having been duly endorsed, J. O. Hayes induced the machine to adopt this, as the test of "party loyalty" to be signed by every voter taking part in the May primaries, to be held for the ostensible purpose of permitting the Republicans of California to record their choice for President:

"I do solemnly pledge myself to vote for and support the nominee of the Republican party at the general election to be held in the State of California on Tuesday, November 3, 1908."

Thus, no Republican may in May record his preference for President unless he promises to vote for and support the ticket nominated by the Southern Pacific machine, in case that machine continues to control California Republican affairs.

It is comforting to be assured by the representatives of the Southern Pacific machine that Governor Gillett has served the state in the best manner. No doubt the robbed depositors of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company will approve Gillett's administration in so far as the Bank Commissioners are concerned.

THE Japanese government is living up to the record it gained for itself at the beginning of the Russo-Japanese war. Then they were prepared for trouble, and did not wait for hostilities to be declared, but carried the fight to the enemy. Now, in spite of all their prostestations of friendship toward our government, they are heavily fortifying Formosa, storing vast quantities of munitions of war, increasing their standing army, and in their dock yards they are working in feverish haste to increase their navy. The Jap evidently has something up his sleeve, and is not going to be caught napping. It is evident also that our government is keenly alive to the situation. A great fleet of battleships is on its way to the Pacific for the purpose of a practice cruise, or as Admiral Evans says, for a 'fight or a frolic." We already have a powerful fleet on this coast of nine modern ships, that can take care of themselves in any company. Coast defense guns are being hurried to the Philippines and Hawaii, besides vast quantities of small arms and ammunition. This much is given out to the public, but other projects, such as mines, coast fortifications, mobilizing our army, etc., are being carefully worked out, so should the wiley Jap strike suddenly he will find an opponent that is fully prepared and full of fight. No one in this country wants war, and all hope that it can and will be avoided. It is well known that the best way to avoid trouble with foreign powers is to be so well prepared that the enemy will not attack. A big navy is a powerful argument for peace.

ITS only a matter of a short time now before the electors of this city will be called upon to exercise their right to elect three trustees, a marshal clerk and treasurer, for the next two years. Let the best men be selected and see that they are elected. The whole state is progressing—going ahead. Ukaih must fall in line and march in the vanguard. Thousands of eastern people are settling in California and a clean, attractive city will prove to be a powerful inducement for the new comers to cast their lot with us. Let us elect men who will work with this end in view. We are favored with an ideal location for a beautiful city, we have a fine sewer system, electric lights, good schools. The town now has cement sidewalks throughout its business centers and also on many streets in the resident section. We now need good streets, and we must have them. Let men be elected, who are to govern the affairs of this city for the next two years, who will work with this end in view. It cannot be accomplished in a day but much can be done in two years.

FOLLOWING are some of the important points made at the meeting of the Hopgrowers' Union held in Santa Rosa last Saturday: The ultimate success of the project, on the responsibility for its failure, rests with the individual grower, or those on the outside. The legitimate dealer, wants the grower to receive good prices. The only way to receive good prices is for the growers to organize and govern the production of hops for the benefit of the trade. A declaration was made that it is a mistaken idea that the dealers are against the organization of the growers. The low prices of hops last year meant a loss in this and Sonoma county of nearly half a million dollars. Had hops brought fifteen cents a pound, this loss would have been avoided, and over a million dollars placed in circulation in these two counties.

THE prosecution of the grafters in San Francisco seems at present to be at a standstill. The flourish of trumpets, the claims of the district attorney's office have, in a measure, been silenced by the adverse decision of the Appellate Court. As yet no motion has been made to apply for a rehearing of the Schmitz case before the Supreme Court of the state. This will surely be done. The immunity contract signed by Langdon and Heney last May granting Ruef complete immunity from all the numerous indictments held against him, if he would appear as a witness against his fellow conspirators, has been declared by the prosecution to be null and void. Ruef will have to stand trial. Judge Dunne refused to be a party to the immunity contract. Ruef, the wily ex-boss seems to hold the whip hand. Francis J. Heney, special prosecutor, is at present in Oregon engaged in other matters, while the trials of the grafters in San Francisco are being postponed from week to week. Is the bottom falling out of graft prosecution?

LETTER FROM SAN FRANCISCO

who has adopted Mendocino county because he likes his relations in law. Mr. and Mrs. George Grant, of Hopland, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grant, of Ukiah, Mrs. McNulty is the receiving teller of the American National Bank.

Eugene Tutt is a very prosperous hardware merchant of Oakland, and his nephew, Richard Tutt rivals his uncle in popularity.

Following up this same line is James Farce Sturtevant with the Tay Company as a city buyer. Jim likes the business and they like him.

Ben Cerf has a great big mercantile business in the Mission.

Alex Long is the head of the books in the Crocker National Bank. He is a man of aristocratic appearance and very hospitable in his home

Gus Grant is a much appreciated deputy with Mr. Caughey, clerk of the court, both formerly your own people.

Genial, kindly Harry Rosenberg has a gents' furnishing mercantile line on Kearny street When I saw him recently we talked Mendocino county of course, and he reminded me of something I had not thought of before. He said "two of Mendocino's men hold some first honors here, J. A. Cooper is a judge of the Appellate Court and Geo. A. Sturtevant is the presiding superior judge of San Francisco," then he spoke of it in that kindly way that has made him so popular with hosts of friends.

L. G. Carpenter is main attorney for the milionaire Chinese merchants, who shammed the city by being the first to contribute to the city's entertainment fund to give the "Fleet" a royal welcome. Frank Carpenter has some of the largest warehouses about the city.

Oscar Cooper is one of the city's most influential attorneys, genial and cultured of its exclusive society men, and one of its most progressive business men.

Dr. Wadsworth and Dr. Nuckols are prominent dentists hereabout.

Dr. D. A. Hogshead, the physician and surgeon, and Beverly Lionell Hodgshead, the prominent attorney, are more of the long list of ex-Mendocinoites that come to my mind to say nothing of the many I may over look. You are well represented here evidently, and may take pride in it.

Hurby Bros. Coming

Who, with Jan Kubelik, Padarewiski, Mme. Louise Homer, and other of the world's greatest artists are under the management of the Great Northern Lyceum and Musical Bureau, will appear at York & Clelland's opera house on Saturday evening, February 8th, 1908. This noted quintett are engaged to play under the auspicies of the Elks in Santa Rosa on February 8th, at the cost of one hundred and fifty dollars for a single appearance and have been induced to come to Ukiah on the above date. This means a rare treat is in store for the folks of Ukiah. Don't miss it. See posters and ad next week.

OBJECTS OF THE BREEDERS BUREAU

Breeders Should Now Make Applications For Stallions

The California Breeding Bureau, which has just been established through the efforts of the New California Jockey Club, is destined to improved the common horse throughout the state. The mission of the new organization is not generally understood so that little information may prove of value to interested parties.

In the first place, the breeding bureau is not established for the purpose of raising thoroughbreds, as some people think. The main object is to give the breeders of the state a chance to breed to a thoroughbred horse in order to raise cavalry horses, driving or saddle horses, says the Chronicle. Breeding bureaus established in other states, notably New York, have been crowned with success, and there is no reason why California should not benefit very materially.

Within the confines of the State many famous thoroughbreds and light harness horses have been raised, but there has always been a lack of good saddle horses. The farmers will now have the chance to improve the general breed of their horses by mating with thoroughbred stallions.

The breeding bureau will pass upon all stallions and undersized ones that may come into its possession will be gelded and given away for saddle horses. Stallions owned by the breeding bureau must have size conformation and plenty of bone. The idea is to breed horses of some substance.

The breeding bureau expects to place twenty stallions with breeders or farmers throughout the state, and applications can now be made. The California bureau has prepared a few simple rules. The party to whom a stallion is assigned is given the privilege of breeding ten mares of his own without any cost. Breeders living in his vicinity will be requested to pay a groom fee of $10, which will cover all expenses.

Thomas H. Williams is very anxious to make a success of the California Breeding Bureau, which is destined to prove a great boon to the stock interests. Several breeders of light harness horses will doubtless secure a thoroughbred stallion to cross on their standard bred mares. This was the pet theory of the late Senator Stanford, and he demonstrated that the thoroughbred infusion begot speed and stamina. The once champion stallion Palo Alto was half thoroughbred. He was by Electioneer out of the thoroughbred mare Dame Winne by Planet.

ANOTHER GOOD INDIAN

Body of Indian is found on the Railroad Track Near Geyserville

On last Tuesday morning Engineer James Morris of the Northwestern Pacific railroad while on his run from this city to San Francisco discovered the remains of a dead Indian lying along the track near Geyserville. The body was identified as that of a well knwon Indian named Ed West, who had lived near Cloverdale for many years. West's head was split open, as if by an axe, and the murder theory is advanced by the officers in that vicinity. The body was taken to Healdsburg where an inquest was held.

Carter Will Fight Hottinger

The Ukiah Athletic Club has been compelled to make a change in their program for next Saturday evening. The principal event for the evening, as advertised, was a ten round contest between Buck Carter and Effner Clark, but owing to illness in the family of the latter he will be unable to fulfill the engagement. The club has secured Barney Hottinger to take Clark's place in the ring. Although the new contestant for pugilistic honors has not had sufficient time to train for the bout a spirited contest is looked foward to by the fight fans.

Debate at Calpella

Calpella, January 24—The Hon Tou Literary Society of Redwood valley held its regular meeting at the Calpella school house Friday evening. A large crowd was in attendance, and were entertained by an excellent program. The question debated was "Resolved that Marriage is a Failure." The speakers on the affirmative were S. G. Odell, B. H. Miller and William Finne, all of whom have enjoyed a life of single blessednees for forty years or more. The speakers representing the negative were C. H. Lorenz and B. Keim as the third debator was absent. As it could not be otherwise, the negative won the decison, but the affirmative put up a good argument. Judging from the speeches of one of the members of the affirmative, he must have gained a very poor opinion of the qualities of the "fair" sex, while in the gold fields of Alaska.

Evangelistic Meetings

A series of Evangelistic meeting will be commenced at the M. E. Church, South, in this city on the 9th of February. All people no matter of what religious faith or of no faith at all are earnestly invited to attend the services. Already a large quantity of new song books have been received and extensive preprations are being made looking for a successful meeting. Special services in view of the coming meetings will be held next Sunday morning and night. Rev. J. A. Batchelor, of Oakland, will preach at the morning hour.

New Boarder For County Jail

Last Monday marshal A. J. Smith, of Willits, brought down U. S. Stark from that city to serve ten days in the county jail for attempting to beat a board bill. The prisoner is a typical tough and caused the officers in charge considerable trouble. Under Sheriff Smith has put the would-be bad man at work on the city streets in the chain gang.

Conditions Don't Look Bright

All the men in the woods of the Mendocino company have been let out except a watchman says the Beacon. All the men at the mill are laid off but two or three. Only enough men are employed in the yard to load the Sea Foam. A general cut in wages of ten per cent had been made sometime before orders were received to lay off all the men. This unlooked for condition in redwood comes as a great surprise and its speedy termination will be hailed with great rejoicing.

Notes From Christine

Christine, Jan. 27—The wife of James Moore died here on January 13th, after two years of constant suffering. She was born in Iowa, March 18th, 1843. She leaves a husband and other relatives to mourn her demise.

Owing to the continued rainy weather the farmers have not been able to work their ranches, which will tend to make their crops late this season.

Times are picking up in this locality and it promises to be a good season.

The Fort Bragg Northwestern railroad have not been able to do much work on their road bed, the weather not permitting. The company had to dipsose of their live stock and put on a steam scraper, and now the work will progress rapidly.

Fire at Albion

On Monday evening a fire broke out in one of the front rooms of the South Side hotel at Albion from an unknown cause. When the fire was discovered the entire room was in flames. Through the quick action of the employes in the use of the fire extinguisher the building was saved. All the wall paper and some of the wood work got burned. Miss Hannah Iversen, the occupant of the room, lost a number of articles by the fire. —Beacon.

Political Bees are Buzzing

The Advocate says Harry Mulson, proprietor of the Grand hotel, Fort Bragg, has been mentioned as a possible candidate for supervisor. Archie Lowell, the Westport merchant, is said to be a Democratic aspirant for the supervisoral toga. Recently the Advocate mentioned J. A. Chambers, of Big River, as a Republican aspirant for the position. Dave Brandon, the popular woods boss, of Fort Bragg, is also mentioned as a coming Republican candidate for the same office.

New Pastor at Presbyterian Church

The members of the Presbyterian church of this city have engaged the Rev. P. R. Dickie, of San Anselmo, to occupy the pulpit of their church. The reverend gentleman has delivered several sermons to this congregation and was well received. He comes highly recommended.
